

The Weekly Challenger

The 2022 Media Kit

WHO WE ARE.

For 55 years, The Weekly Challenger has been the most comprehensive source for gathering, organizing and presenting news and information to the African-American communities of Tampa Bay.

In addition to in-depth research and thorough reporting of local events, The Weekly Challenger offers opinions, Black history, entertainment, religious news, obituaries and classifieds.

This hyperlocal broadsheet is published on Thursdays, and has a strong distribution all over Pinellas County, which allows advertisers and readers alike, the rewarding benefits of a market untapped by mainstream media.

Our readership continues to grow as journalism excellence exceeds past standards and sets the bar for competitors in our market. The Weekly Challenger has become the newspaper of record for this community and welcomes both the successes of our past and the future legacies that we will create together.

55 YEARS STRONG AND COUNTING.

I HOPE TO CONTINUE THE LEGACY MY FATHER BUILT FOR YEARS TO COME AND TO ENSURE THAT THE VOICE OF THE LOCAL AFRICAN-AMERICAN COMMUNITY IS NOT STIFLED.”

Fifty-five years after Cleveland Johnson acquired The Weekly Advertiser and rebranded it as a weekly newspaper catering to African-American news in the Tampa Bay area, the paper continues to thrive as the go-to source for “news outside your front door.”

Now led at the helm by Johnson’s youngest daughter, publisher Lyn Johnson, The Weekly Challenger continues to be the voice of the Black community in Pinellas County. Under her leadership, the brand has strengthened its image with a strict focus on community news and interactive features on its newly designed website.

The Tampa Bay market looks to our advertisers for help in making purchasing decisions, and they will seek out your message. We look forward to you joining our many satisfied advertisers.
